

Brasenose Concerts Trinity 2023

Friday, 12th May, 6pm

Platnauer Concert

Victor Sangiorgio (concert pianist)

The legendary Italian concert pianist Victor Sangiorgio brings his internationally celebrated pianism to Brasenose in a recital of works by Haydn, Scarlatti, Chopin, and Chick Corea. With a focus on under-celebrated and contemporary works, Victor's career has been unusually varied. He has performed at major concert halls across the world with regular professorial invitations to major conservatoires. His acclaimed recordings of masterworks by Liszt, Glazunov, Mendelssohn, Stravinsky, Rachmaninov, Cimarosa, and many others, have been widely celebrated.

Friday of 4th at 6pm (19th May)

Brasenose Chamber Trio

BNC undergraduates Isabelle Lever, Matthew Campbell and Luke Hayward perform a colourful programme of chamber music to include Weber's wonderful Trio for flute, cello and piano.

Friday of 5th at 6pm (26th May)

William Smyth Memorial Recital

This annual recital brings members of Brasenose SCR and staff to the stage, with performances from many of your tutors, including blues guitar, folksong, classical piano, and voice.

Friday of 7th at 6pm (9th June)

Music at Brasenose Recital

The final recital of the academic year, and a relaxed opportunity for any member of the BNC community (from any common room) to perform in any genre and on any instrument.

Free admission to all recitals

All recitals held in the College Chapel or Antichapel

