

Platnauer Concerts 2019-2020

Friday, 1st November, 6pm

Wandering Wires

A searing mix of jazz, soul, Brazilian and electronic sounds, Wandering Wires are establishing themselves as one of the most exciting emerging bands on the UK jazz scene. Since forming in 2016 they have appeared at major UK venues including the Vortex in London, Manchester's Band on the Wall, and Oxford's O2 Academy. The group's latest studio album, 'Homecoming' has featured regularly on 'BBC Introducing'. "A genre-fluid treat!" Nightshift Magazine.

Friday, 7th February, 6pm

Gothic Voices

An Early Music supergroup, Gothic Voices are celebrated world-wide for the excellence, refinement, and spirituality of their performances of medieval music. Founded in 1980 the group have recorded 23 discs, 3 of which won the coveted Gramophone Award. In this programme subtitled 'Music for the Lion-hearted King', the group present a stunning programme of English music relating to the Crusades.

"...sustenance for the soul, a short-cut to bliss." The Times.

Friday, 15th May, 6pm

The English Viola

Sarah-Jane Bradley & John Lenehan

Celebrated English violist Sarah-Jane Bradley joins leading pianist John Lenehan in a programme of English music to include Rebecca Clarke's Viola Sonata and works by Dale, Bridge, and Vaughan Williams. Since her Wigmore Hall debut in 1997, Bradley has been hailed as the British violist par excellence. "Is there a better British violist than Sarah-Jane Bradley?" The Strad.

